Mons. Bonnefoy having made arrangements, for several years, with an artist of merit (a painter), and also a professor of the German and Italian Languages; this gentleman, an inmate of the Establishment, will direct the studies of the gentlemen intended as artists or linguists.

Mons. Bonnefoy hopes that twenty years constant application to his profession, and the most undeniable references, from the friends of the young gentlemen who have been placed under his care, will be a sufficient guarantee to those parents who desire their children to receive a good education blended with every care and tenderness of domestic treatment.

The Chateau-Fontaine is situated in the centre of about ten acres of ground and commands the most beautiful and varied views over a circuit of many miles. The influence of such a situation on the health and spirits of children in their hours of necessary relaxation is too obvious to be further dwelt upon.
